Usborne Book Fair – 19th & 22nd November at 3:20 – 4:30

Hi Everyone! I'm excited to come back again and bring my books to school for you all to look at. I will be on site on Tuesday 19th Nov and Friday 22nd Nov in the outdoor classroom with my current range as well as the catalogue should you wish to order anything else. I can take cash or card on the day and will be taking orders. Orders will be delivered to school when they arrive and can take around a week. I'm running a special offer on advent calendars as well - see the poster at the end of the newsletter!

There will also be an online event running alongside next week which begins at 9am on Monday 18th and will remain open until Friday 22nd at midnight. Buying online means you can see the entire Usborne range and you can choose to have books delivered directly to you (postage applies) or sent to me and I will deliver them to school when they arrive. The link for the online event is <https://usborne.com/gb/uevent?event=43c1abff320c3445aa56b984ef57ddc9> All purchases help towards the schools total which will provide them with a number of free books for everyone to enjoy. If you have any queries, please feel free to email me at weezysbookshop@gmail.com

Tempest Photos

All pupils photos went home in book bags on Wednesday. If you would like to take advantage of free delivery to school all orders must be placed by midnight on 26th November. Any questions, please ask at the office.

Armistice Day

On Monday the whole school fell silent for the national two minute silence. All children were very respectful and show a very good understanding of why we mark this important annual event. Children have also made poppies & posters which have been displayed around the school grounds. Thank you to all who supported the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

CLASS NEWS

Class 1

This week in Class 1, we have begun our theme of 'Light and Dark'. In Literacy, we have started our class text 'The Night Box' by Louise Greig, looking at nocturnal animals, and coming up with items that we would put in our own night box. We have also continued with our phonics programme, with Reception completing Set 1 of Phase 3, and Year 1 learning different ways to make the 'oa' sound in Phase 5. In Numeracy, we have been practising counting in 2's and 10's. We have used ten frames, number lines, and had lots of opportunity to learn through practical activities, including trips on Mrs. Henders' imaginary bus!! In Science, we have continued learning about materials, distinguishing between names of objects and the material they are made out of. In P.S.H.E, the children discussed bedtime routines, and how important it is for our health, to get the right amount of sleep. Lastly, thank you for all your support today with 'Children in Need'. We discussed with the children, what the charity was trying to achieve, and they all seemed very proud that they were able to contribute to such a worthy cause. A photo of the children, looking fabulous in their Pudsey clothes, has been put on Class Dojo. Have a wonderful weekend everyone!

Class 2

Class 2 have worked hard this week on improving the quality of our presentation and the accuracy of our spelling in our writing. It has been great to see how far we have come since the beginning of term. We have been encouraging each other and sharing lots of good ideas in our Literacy work and in our topics. Our ukelele playing is improving week by week and Mr. Henderson is very pleased with the progress everyone is making. We have been enjoying our P.E. Lessons with Mr. Graham and we are developing our listening skills when following instructions as well as our coordination and stamina. We have also been enjoying the mild weather when playing outside, although we are expecting much colder weather next week, so we need to make sure we have extra layers to keep us warm for the rest of the term!

Class 3

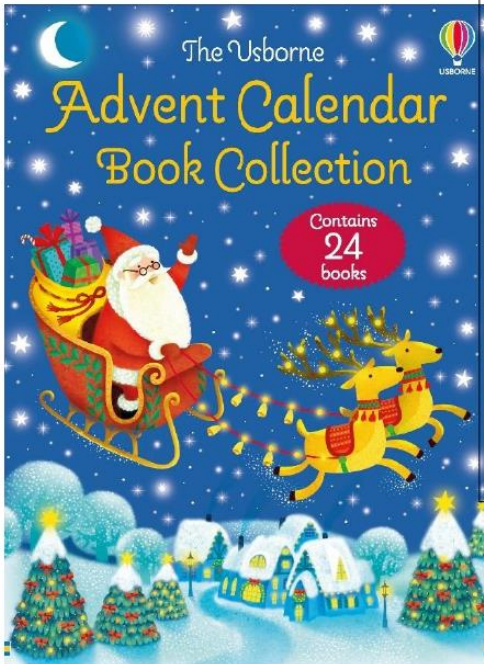

We have had another brilliant week in Class Three! We have been developing our understanding of measuring length in maths and have been measuring and converting between different units of length. We have been focusing on aspects of what makes effective and memorable poetry in English. We have been learning about assonance and similes with some very good work produced. On Monday we took part in the national two minute silence for Armistice Day with everyone being very respectful. We have had a brilliant day at the Roman Museum in Chester today! We learnt lots of important facts, marched like a soldier and visited the amphitheatre. A great time was had by all. Have a lovely weekend!

Class 4

Another very busy week in Class 2. We have been looking at percentages in maths this week, considering the relationship between percentages, decimals and fractions. In English, we have started to read our text for the half term, 'The Jungle Book'. We have also looked at the characters introduced so far and the setting itself. In science, we looked at sieving this week in our mixtures and separations topic, completing a little experiment with sand and various materials. We have a very busy couple of weeks ahead in the lead up to Christmas. I have spoken to the class about parts in our Christmas production and will send scripts home asap. We will practise as much as we can in school but if spoken parts can be practised at home, it would be greatly appreciated. Please feel free to ask if there are any questions. Have a lovely weekend.

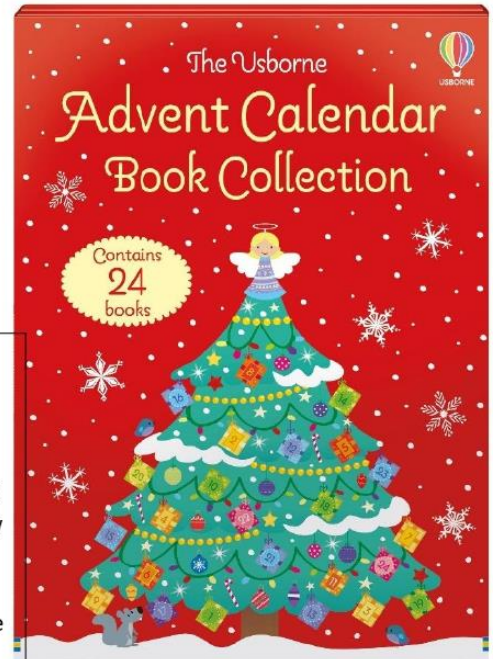

Special offer!

These lovely calendars are on offer online currently at £14.99 each however as a special discount for school I will be offering them at £12 each if you order with me directly!

Countdown to Christmas with 24 illustrated storybooks!

These luxury advent calendars contain a beautifully illustrated storybook behind each window to fire up children's imaginations in the build up to the big day. Perfect for bedtime reading and cosy story times. Each set contains a different mix of 24 storybooks from Cinderella to A Christmas Carol, all miniaturised and easy to read with young ones!

This luxury advent calendar contains a festively illustrated Magic Painting book behind each window - plus, behind the first window you'll also find a high-quality, wood-handled brush. Simply use the brush to sweep water over the black-and-white designs in the books and vibrant hues magically appear!
